

Statutory Board Members

Jean Carlos Borges

With 29 years of professional experience, he began his career as an Engineer at IBM Brasil, where he served as Commercial Manager in the states of Minas Gerais and Mato Grosso. He worked at Algar Tech (the Company's BPO/IT Management company) for 5 years, 2 of which as CFO. He joined the Company in 2003, where he held the positions of Chief Financial Officer, Technical-Operational Director, Director of Governance and Strategy and Vice President of Operations. He is currently the Chief Executive Officer of Algar Telecom. He is a Mechanical Engineer graduated from the Federal University of Uberlândia, with extension courses in (i) Business Management and (ii) Controllershship and Accounting, from the same University and (iii) Administration and Marketing from Universidade do Triângulo – UNITRI. In the years 1999 and 2000, he was a professor of the Business Administration course at the Universidade do Triângulo – UNITRI. He attended the Program for Executive Development (IMD), in Lausanne – Switzerland and the Executive Master of Business Administration (EMBA), also at IMD. In 2019, he attended the GMP – General Manager Program at Harvard Business School.

Ana Paula Rodrigues

With more than 24 years of professional experience in the telecommunications sector, she has held various roles at the Company, such as managing marketing and product strategies, business communication and managing sales teams. She is currently Director of People and Customer Relations at Algar Telecom, focused on promoting a new model of customer service experience, with process improvements perceptible to their eyes, increasing the efficiency and convenience of service, and also on disseminating of the concept of “service” as everyone's mission. She holds a degree in Economic Sciences from the Federal University of Uberlândia (UFU) with a postgraduate degree in Marketing from the Escola Superior de Marketing e Propaganda (ESPM).

Luis Antônio Andrade Lima

He has been working in the telecommunications area for 35 years, focusing on planning, projects, implementation, operation, maintenance and management of telecommunications networks. He held several positions at the Company, including telecommunications engineer, Technical-Operational Manager of the Franca-SP Regional Directorate, General Operations Manager, Director of the Video and Internet Business Unit and Director of Strategic Projects. From 2009 to 2016 he commanded the Company's Operations and Technology Directorate and, since 2017, he has been the Technology Director at Algar Telecom. He holds a degree in Electronic Engineering from Fundação Educacional de Barretos-SP, with a Specialization course in Computer Networks from the Federal University of Uberlândia-MG. He attended the Advanced Management Program at AMANA Key, has an MBA in Advanced Business Management from Fundação Getúlio Vargas in São Paulo, Strategic Management for Business Leaders from INSEAD and an MBA in Finance, Communication and Investor Relations from FIPECAFI.

Oswaldo Cesar Carrijo

With more than 30 years of professional experience in the Retail Technology and Marketing market. He is currently the Vice President of Business at Algar Telecom, responsible for the areas of marketing, sales and operations. He specialized in Information Systems in White Plains (USA) at IBM, in food retail at Fleming Retail University in Oklahoma (USA) and in Advanced Management Program at INSEAD/FDC (Brazil/France).

Túlio Abi-Saber

He has more than 15 years of experience in regulated companies. Before joining the Algar group, he worked for the Invepar group for 9 years, having held, among others, the roles of Vice-President of Highways, CEO of Via 040 and CEO of CART. He worked at GlobeNet, as CFO and Financial Manager and Controller, and also at Brasil Telecom, holding positions in the financial, engineering and operations areas. Graduated in Electrical Engineering from UFMG, he has a specialization in Business Management from FIA, Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Kellogg School of Management and Advanced Management Program from FDC/INSEAD.